

Federation News
Executive Committee 26/01/06
Summary

- Funds are still available for individual / institutional members to access training. Please look at the grants section of this website. Individual members are especially encouraged to apply.
- A decision was also made to draw up a schedule of meetings for the coming year. Ideas for meetings include marketing / PR, CPD, Interpretation.
- The next meeting will be run in partnership with MLA NW and will take place on 23rd March. It will focus on the subject of evaluation as a tool for museum development. The venue will be the Rex Makin Theatre in Liverpool.
- May 11th has been set as the date for the AGM.
- The North West Hub's business plan has been approved and described as exemplary.
- MLA NW is running the Rising Stars programme with 15 candidates. This popular scheme will be rolled out again in autumn.
- The Federation in partnership with MLA NW will continue to make training grants available in 2006-7.
- National Museums Liverpool has expressed an interest to work in partnership re. training with the Fed.
- Julie Allsop has tendered her resignation from the exec. Committee as she is leaving the region to take up a senior position at Bristol Museums and Galleries. The committee records their thanks to JA for her input over the last three years and wishes her success in her new position.